A Word from the Director

Written by Carol Petrina

A year ago in this newsletter, I announced that we were awarded the ALA Libraries Transforming Communities Accessibility grant, and this April, we are proud to host an Open House to celebrate the improvements we have made to our accessibility. We have new chairs in our sitting area, an automatic entry door, and accessible bathrooms. Please join us at this celebration on Wednesday, April 9th from 4-6 pm. The Open House falls in the middle of our National Library Week festivities, so join in those as well. We have a Mini Art Show, a Family Puzzle contest, and a DIY class on Ceramic Egg Coloring just to name a few. Wishing you a Happy Easter and joy-filled spring!

You are cordially invited to our

Library Open House

Come celebrate our improved accessibility, to better serve people with disabilities.
