KEWAUNEE PUBLIC LIBRARY MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

A Word from the Director

Written by Carol Petrina

Spring is around the corner! If you start your spring cleaning and come across gently used books, you can bring them in to us. The Friends of the Library would love your book donations. They will be once again having their book sales on Saturdays starting in April, as soon as Mother Nature warms us up.

March is National Craft Month so we have some extra craft activities planned that you can drop in and do on your own schedule.

I've heard sassy Leprechauns will be hiding throughout the library in March, so bring in the kids to see if they can find them.

Nothing says spring like gardening, and our Garden Club will be kicking off again in March. Check out our flyers and the calendar for dates and times.

Tons of great new books are coming out this spring. Ask us anytime for some recommendations!

What's New?

We're rolling right on into March! Soon the snow will be melting, flowers will be blooming, and the cold snaps will become less snappy... But, for now, March is National Craft Month and Kewaunee Public Library has got you covered! Each week we will be doing a new drop-in craft that you can come and do anytime! Check our calendar on the back and come join us in making some wonderful crafts.

Hey, hey, hey! March 14th is pi (3.14) day. In the true spirit of pi day, we will be pie-ing one of our librarians! Make sure to cast your vote in the jars for Miss Cam, Miss Carol, or Miss Linda! See more details on the calendar. We will be Facebook Live-ing the event so don't worry about missing out in the fun!
