KEWAUNEE PUBLIC LIBRARY MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

A Word from the Director

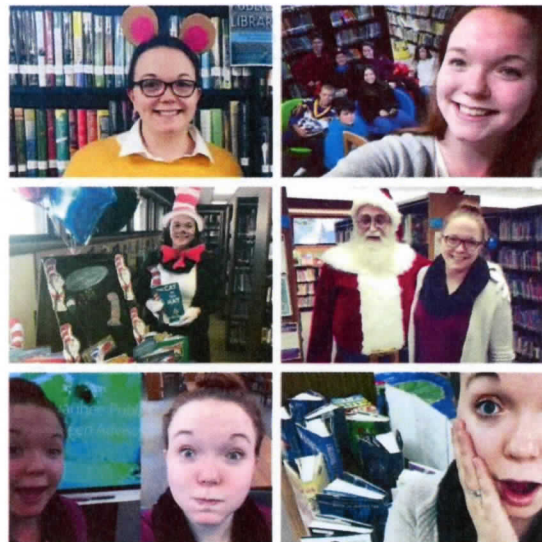

Written by Carol Petrina

September is back to school, back to routine, and back to our regular programming! Our book clubs are all starting up again as well as LEGO club. Check out the info to the left on our newest club, Fun Newtons! Story time is also back on Friday mornings at 10:30. Come listen to the great stories Miss Linda has discovered!

September holds some exciting new book releases. Best-selling author Jude Deveraux debuts her first mystery novel called A Willing Murder. Stephen King's new title is called Flight or Fright. If you like the Longmire TV series, Craig Johnson releases Depth of Winter this month!

What's New?

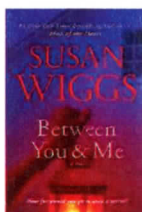

Introducing The Fun Newtons! Come be part of a fun new group for Grades 4 and Up exploring science and having fun along the way! The Fun Newtons will meet on the first Monday of the month from 3:30-4:30. Due to Labor Day, the first session will be on Monday, October 1st. Cohesion, adhesion, engineering, physics, density, and chemical reactions are just a few of the cool topics we'll explore!

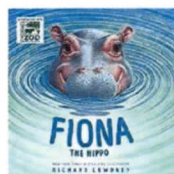

Good Bye to Miss Cambrie. We wish you the best in your future pursuits.
